Sunday, April 11, 2010 at 8:00 pm
Aardvark Jazz Orchestra: New Music by Mark Harvey
MIT, Kresge Auditorium in Cambridge, MA
Free Admission

The Aardvark Jazz Orchestra performed original works by founder/music director Mark Harvey. The concert featured a tribute to the late master storyteller, Brother Blue, entitled Blue Butterfly, and a work called Blues for Mary Lou, celebrating the centennial of jazz great Mary Lou Williams (1910-1981). The program also included several world premieres, including music in celebration of the passage of health care reform.
